

Celebrate International Women's Day 2019 at Bellarine Community Health

Amy Hetherington, Editor of The Big Issue, will share her experiences as the head of an organisation that supports marginalised and disadvantaged people.

Almost 50,000 Australian women are homeless every night and domestic and family violence is the largest single cause of homelessness.

Your $10 entry fee will be donated to The Big Issue. Tickets are limited. A light supper will be provided.
